Anush of Senator Hoar is the natural outcome of Democratic detestation of decency. His Springfield speech-in so far as i strong. Those who vilify Mr. Hoar do not read the speeches on which they ostensibly base their abuse.

Mr. GREGORY has done the proper thing In placing his resignation of the office of civil service commissioner in the hands of the President. He has endured as much abuse as any gentleman should be expected to bear, even in so good a cause as that of civil service reform

DESPITE the mild protest of the Richmend Dispatch, we must still insist that the common council of Richmond blundered egregiously when it referred to the Presi dent as "His Excellency." It would be just as proper to call the President "His High Mightiness," as one of the fathers seriously proposed.

THE Richmond Dispatch says; "THE RE-FURLICAN does not seem to know what happened on the 4th of March last," Oh, v we know what happened on that great day. That was the day made ever memorable by a big procession in bonor of Fitzhugh Lee and Thomas A. Hendricks! Who that saw and heard can ever forget it?

THE Grant memorial service at the Metropolitan Church last evening was a fitting attestation of the affection and respect in which this community holds the memory of the Old Commander. The address of tien. Logan profoundly stirred the feelings of his auditors. The presence of some of the high officials of the government would have been in excellent taste. A feeling and appropriate letter from the President was received too late to be read before the close business in this city and corresponding improvements in materials, appliances, and nethods attest not only the rapid growth of very important department of mechanical dustry. If we were to name any one of rny other, it would be plumbing. And it may well be doubted if there is another city on the continent where this work is more thoroughly appreciated or more intelligently accuted than in Washington.

Whe at Alexandria.

sudience at Armory Hall, in Alexandria, Va., last evening. As a popular speaker ha siceres a vast fund of humor, succdate, and satire. In the discussion of state and national questions he makes folling points upon the Democracy, and when interrupted by questions he burls lack his answers with quickness and power scarcely equaled by any of the prominent political speakers of the country. His wit and sareasm upon the Democracy's conduct of the campaign in Virginia, and ridicule of his opponent's cavalry tactics and uncle's saddle, at times thrilled the audience, causing his friends to explode with laughter and his enemies to with hiss with rage, but every word he spoke was strictly within the limit of pullamentary debate. Notwithstanding this, his brilliant sareasm and telling hits produced such a powerful effect upon the audience that an organized mob succeeded at last by yells and hisses in preventing him from completing his great effort. The non-action of the police and city authorities to preserve the right of free speech will ever remain a disgrace to the ancient city of Alexandria. The last atterances of his speech were a severe indictment of the civil authoritie when he declared that never in his life had he witnessed such blackguardism and so oul an attempt to prevent a free and fair discussion of a political opponent, and, that, too, in the county in which Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, the Democratic candidate, resided, within seven miles and in sight o the national capital. The Voice of the Bay State.

It would be impossible for words to con vey an idea more false than that the protest of the northern Republicans against uppression of votes in the south is an evilence of a desire to excite sectional strife. The people of the south have no better friends anywhere than these same Republicens of the north who are falsely accused of "waving the bloody shirt" and "reopening the wounds of the war." The records of Congress show that In every case where an appeal for aid has come p from the south the Republicans have been foremost in speaking and voting for liberal propositions. Devastations of floods, ravages of pestilence, and other afflictions that have befallen southern communities have called forth such words and acts by the Republicans in Congress as ought to have left no doubt of their kindly feelings.

Any unprejudiced person who will study the Congressional history of the New Orleans Exposition will find therein a complefe refutation of the charge that the Re-publicans of the north are unfriendly to the outh and its people.

And if this is not sufficient, let the his ory of the Blair educational bill be cited to the north Poully the Republican states of to help the south mitigate fis leading burden of filterney. But for the intense Lostility of southern Democrats that most brueficient measure would have been a law a year and a half ago.

The news items and articles which have had widest publicity and kindest editorial mention in the northern Republican papers have been reports of industrial and educational progress in the south. And the capithe south to the extent of many millions annually for the past eight years to aid in developing the resources of that section.

The true feeling of the Republican masses is voiced in the declaration of the Republians of Messachusetts that their party "has plways been an essentially national and Union party. It is opposed to sectionalism and to geographical divisions in any and every form. It has heartily and deeply rejoiced in the manifestations of sympathy and good feeling at the south called forth by the death of our great soldier and patriot and, as Republicans, we wish for a com plete and perfect reconcilation between the

But there must be justice, in the relations of the sections if "perfect reconciliation" is o be assured. To have peace and prosper ity abound we must have a government tused on the foundation prescribed by the constitution. The Massachusetts Republi. when they assert that one result of the war has not been accepted-the negro, enfranchised by the war, is largely deprived of his privileges as a voter. In certain states elections are a mockery, returns are frauduient, and voting is a farce." And there is the resistless elequence of absolute truth and sincerity in their further declaration that-

It we were to be silent as to this crying evil we should be false to all the traditions and principles of our party, as well as to those of American government and American freedom. Against this great wrong, so dangerous and so un-American, yet vindicated and maintained by successive Pemocratic majorities in the House of Representatives, we propose to agitate and to protest. We appeal against it to public opinion, both north and south. We shall seek redress in an aroused public conscience and in proper legislation. We shall not be content until the wrong is crushed out and justice done. As one specific measure, tending to remedy this ovil, we urge upon congress the policy of making liberal grants in aid of primary education in the recent slave states. THE REPUBLICAN does not believe that this appeal to the reason and justice of the south will be in vain. It is impossible that men will be so blinded by passion as not to give heed to such utterances.

It is the proper thing in some parts of the south to have a committee vote for the party-the dominant minority. This explains the apparent lack of interest in elections in those regions. It is a great saving of time to have ten out of a hundred go to the polls while the ninety shuck corn.

THE Democratic victory of 1884 for which Senator Gorman worked so hard bas proven a serious misfortune to him. Dissatisfaction with his distribution of spoils his party to such an extent that his re-clear tion to the Senate is extremely doubtful.

THE bureau of information, War Depart ment, is to be placed under the charge of Adjutant General Drum. The reason fo this, it is supposed, is the graceful alacrity hitherto shown by this official in imparting information to representatives of newspa-

King's Palace.

Meny kings have lived and died in luxury without ever seeing or hearing of things half so beamind as were viewed by the delighted crowds who thronged King's Palace yesterday. The first day of the seventh annual grand that recent years have witnessed in this opening was a great success. It was the talk could not be received In one day, hence the all the various kinds of work required in opening continues throughout to-day. To mist the erection and equipment of buildings as rectar the beautiful goods to King's Falace rfferding a more correct gauge of the will beto waits a great opportunity for the progress of civilization and refinement than study of art.

We have already told you much about our Boys' and Children's Department. We can tell you much more and still not exhaust our subject. It is a pleasant thing for us to write about, and profitable for you to read. Our Boys' and Children's Department, always popular in the past, has become even more so since we moved into our new building. Pop-ular because of the prices at which we sell our goods, because of the variety of styles we present, and because of the carefulness with which ALL our goods are made; popular because of our bright and beautiful salesrooms, and because of the convenience provided for our lady patrons who generally accompany the little gentlemen. We are not going to add that "gentlemanly salesmen gladly serve you." It is unnecessary to state that our salesmen are gentlemanly. If they were not they couldn't be OUR salesmen, and as regards our willingness to "gladly serve you," it is understood that we are here to do business. and the more you bother us the better we like it.
